BIG IRON DVDS

AGRICULTURE IN NORTH AMERICA - Vol 1

This DVD is your guide to the first part of an agricultural road trip through the vast expanses of North America. Our tour takes you south of the Canadian city of Calgary right into northern Montana. On the way we show you the Albertan potato harvest, silage production for a farm with 10,000 head of cattle and phytosanitary measures of a mindboggling scale.

We take you onto a 25,000-hectare wheat farm run by Hutterites and give an account of life on that farm.

Watch 8 combines at work on one field and get a good look at the interesting logistics involved in transporting the harvested crop away.

Numerous pictures show both the modern agricultural technology and the impressive landscape of North America. A full colour brochure gives you interesting background information and tells stories about all aspects of the agricultural machinery in use

110 mins DVD #0130 $55.00

AGRICULTURE IN NORTH AMERICA - Vol 2

The journey continues! After travelling through southern Canada and the US state of Montana in the first DVD "Agriculture in North America Vol. 1" we return to Canada for the second instalment. We show stubble processing using the most modern heavy plant and typical American giants such as Case IH Steiger and CAT Challenger tractors. We also visited the biggest agricultural operation in Canada. 14 Case IH combine harvesters are used on this mega farm to harvest barley.

Truck and Transport Special: This DVD shows photos and footage of the enormous Canadian road trains.

Germany Special: In northern Germany we show maize being harvested for use in biogas digesters. Two Claas forage harvesters and two Kässbohrer PistenBullys are used here to roll the silage clamp.
